Casually Date Before You Commit

Color chips

Feeling confident about choosing a new color like Urbane Bronze SW 7048 or Indigo SW 6531, both from the Sherwin-Williams 2023 Colormix® Forecast, involves a proper getting-to-know-you period. Sherwin-Williams encourages ways to get acquainted.

Color chips are a useful tool to help envision a new paint color up close and personal before ringing up a gallon or more at retail. Say the word and Sherwin-Williams will deliver a color chip directly to your door so you can experience the color at home.

Online ordering and delivery make it easier than ever to explore small quantities of paints and color chips so that you can try before you buy.

Peel & stick paint samples

Sherwin-Williams peel & stick paint samples are another useful tool to help you try on a bold paint like Serape SW 6656 before purchasing. Designed for a mess-free application on a larger surface area, peel & stick paint samples are easy to reposition, and help you envision how color looks in multiple spaces and against different lighting during the day and night.

Sherwin-Williams 8x8-inch peel & stick samples are available in the brand's most popular colors, including the 2023 Color of the Year Redend Point SW 9081.

Color chips and peel & stick samples make it easy for pros and homeowners to explore colors and feel confident about their vision before committing.

Color experts help elevate a vision

Need one-on-one guidance when it comes to finding the right hue? Sherwin-Williams offers a free Virtual Color Consultation with a color expert for advice and additional inspiration. Sherwin-Williams experts help take the guesswork out of the painting process. These 30-minute meetings can be whatever is needed, from big-picture ideation to guidance on complementary colors.

The Sherwin-Williams color expert will directly send color chip samples to the client's home post-consultation to help them bring their vision to life.
